Noted Suffragist Leader is Dead

MRS. INEZ MILHOLLAND BOISSE-VAIN OF NEW YORK

DIED IN LOS ANGELES

Had Been Active as a Social Worker Practicing Lawyer-Had Been III for Ten Weeks.

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Inez Mulholland Boissevain, widely known suffragist and welfare worker, died in a hospital here shortly before midnight last night after an illness of ten weeks. She was 30 years of age.

Stricken While Making an Address. Mrs. Boissevain was stricken sud-denly while addressing an audience in this city during the recent political campaign and fainted on the plat-form at the meeting. She was re-moved to a hospital and her husband and parents rushed from New York to join her here. Miss Vida Milhoi-land, her sister, was with her when she was stricken and mad been in con-stant attendance since that time stant attendance since that time.

Aplastic Anemta.

Mrs. Boissevain's illness was diag-nosed as aplastic anemia and blood transfusion was resorted to in atempts to improve her condition. Vida Milholland twice gave blood for this purpose and on four other occa-sions friends submitted to the ordeal in hope that benefit would result. Af-ter each transfusion temporary im-provement was followed by relapses. A few days ago the physicians in charge stated that there was practi-cally no hope for Mrs. Bolssevain but thereafter she rallied and it was thought she might recover.

Late today she began to sink. Her husband, Eugene Boissevain, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Mitholand, of New York, and her sister, Miss Vida, were present when she died.

Trouble Originated in Tonsils. It was stated that Mrs. Boissevain's trouble originated in her tonsils which became inflamed as the result of too constant speaking during the cam-paign. She had been weakened by over-exertion and when she became ill her sistem falled to resist the advance of the disease Sketch of Her Life. Inez Milholland Boissevain had been for many years widely known for her activity as a woman suffragist, a social welfare worker, an advocate of socialism, and as a practicing law-

Married in London.

In July 1913 she married by a civil ceremony in London, Eugen Boissevain, a wealthy Hollander, to whom she had been introduced by William Marconi, inventor of wireless telegraphy. She returned to this country and continued her practice of law and suffrage activities.

In 1916 she went as a delegate on the Ford Peace Ship, but left the par-ty at Stockholm because, as she said in a statement "the undemocratic methods employed by the managers are repugnant to my principles." Mrs. Boissevain was born in New York, Aug. 6, 1886, receiving her ear-ly education in New York, London and Berlin.
